D/Lt. McElhone, C.O., Homicide Squad informed Sgt. Waltz that they have been notified of the disappearance of Jerry Steuerman of Oldfield, a business partner of Seymour Tankleff. Tankleff and his wife were the victims of an assault by their son, Martin, on 9-7-88. Mrs. Tankleff died of her wounds and Seymour is alive but in grave condition.

Homicide has no reason to believe that Steuerman's absence is connected with the murder but is requesting an opportunity to further evaluate the disappearance.

Juvenile and Missing Person Section involvement in this incident will be minimal pending further discussion with Homicide.

9-16-88
Lt SS

D/Sgt. R. Doyle, Homicide Sqd. relates the following set of facts: Jerry Steuerman is a friend and business associate of Seymour Tankleff, who is soon expected to expire from his injuries. Tankleff and Steuerman own a race horse and Tankleff has helped Steuerman finance numerous bagel stores. Tankleff and Steuerman and a few others were playing cards on the night of the assault. Steuerman has been thoroughly questioned and Homicide does not believe he was involved. Steuerman is described as an aggressive businessman by family and friends.

On Wednesday morning, 9-14-88, Steuerman, who lives with his adult daughter, Bari, gets up and leaves the house early as usual. He goes to one of the bagel shoppes operated by his older son, Glen, and seems to be in a somber mood. He stays at the shoppe for awhile and then leaves. At about 0930 he arrives at the office of his attorney and long time friend, Michael Grundfest on Rt. 25 in Smithtown. Grundfest states that Steuerman was concerned over personal and business matters and wanted to put his affairs in order. Grundfest says he doesn't have time and wants to make an appointment. Steuerman also has to go but leaves an envelope with Grundfest which is to be opened if anything happens. Lawyer has known Steuerman for 20 yrs., never saw him act like this.

Steuerman's 1987 Lincoln Town Car is found, with the engine running behind Ribsters Restaurant, Veterans Highway and LIE north service rd., Hauppauge at about 1400 hrs on 9-14-88 and reported to the 4th Pct. who impound it.

Letter is opened in the lawyers office on 9-15-88. Basically discussed business and family matter and implied that Glen should run things.

DETAILS

On 9/15/88, D/LIEUTENANT JOHN McELHONE, D/SERGEANT ROBERT DOYLE, Shield #463, and the undersigned, all Command 3310, met privately with MICHAEL GRUNDFAST, Attorney, at his offices, 285 Route 25, the Branch, Smithtown, New York. This meeting followed a previous meeting in which an envelope left at MR. GRUNDFAST's office on 9/14/88 by JERRY STEUERMAN was opened in the presence of the above-named Police Officers and MR. STEUERMAN's children. That meeting is the subject of another report filed in this case.

MR. GRUNDFAST stated that on Tuesday, 9/13/88, JERRY STEUERMAN called his office and wanted to set up an appointment for Wednesday, 9/14/88, to draw a will. STEUERMAN was told that MR. GRUNDFAST could only meet with him on Thursday, 9/15/88.

However, on Wednesday, 9/14/88, some time between 0900 and 0930, STEUERMAN appeared at GRUNDFAST's law office. STEUERMAN did not sit down. He appeared to be highly agitated and he stated that he was very upset. STEUERMAN stated that he received two life threatening phone calls. He told MR. GRUNDFAST that he had not lived an exemplary life, and he had done things of which he was not very proud. STEUERMAN stated that the calls were received subsequent to SEYMOUR TANKLEFF's murder (9/7/88). STEUERMAN told his attorney that some people in his poker card game believed what MARTIN TANKLEFF had said about JERRY STEUERMAN's involvement in the murder. MARTIN TANKLEFF is the defendant in his parents' murder.

STEUERMAN told GRUNDFAST that he was close to breaking down, that he was terrified, and he had many problems which were too much for him to handle. GRUNDFAST recommended that STEUERMAN go away for a few days.

STEUERMAN told the attorney that he had a 10 a.m., appointment which was very important and that he could not talk about it. He also stated that he had an appointment at 4 p.m., with a Detective from the TANKLEFF case.

STEUERMAN discussed dying without a will. He handed MICHAEL GRUNDFAST an envelope. STEUERMAN said that it contained information

DETAILS

On 9/15/88, at 0720 hours, a Missing Person Report was filed for one JERARD, a/k/a JERRY, STEUERMAN, dob 12/14/39, of 11 West Gate Lane, Old Field, New York, 751-9656. STEUERMAN is a former business partner of SEYMOUR and ARLENE TANKLEFF, murder victims, occurring 9/7/88, cross reference CC#88-461042. STEUERMAN's primary business interest and involvement is the operation of bagel shops in the Stony Brook-Setauket area. On 9/14/88, at about 1400 hours, STEUERMAN's 1987 Lincoln, New York Registration XDW 864 (stolen plates) was found with the engine running behind the Ribster's Restaurant, Veterans Highway and the Long Island Expressway North Service Road, Hauppauge.

On 9/15/88, the following persons attended a meeting at the law office of JERRY STEUERMAN's attorney, MICHAEL GRUNDFAST, of 285 Route 25, The Branch, Smithtown Township, New York: MICHAEL GRUNDFAST; D/LT. JOHN McELHONE, D/SGT. ROBERT DOYLE, Shield #463, and the undersigned, all Command 3310; and STEUERMAN's grown children, GLENN, TODD, and BARI STEUERMAN.

The purpose of the meeting was to learn the contents of an envelope that JERRY STEUERMAN gave to MR. GRUNDFAST on 9/14/88, at the attorney's office. MR. GRUNDFAST had been instructed to only open the envelope in case something happened to JERRY STEUERMAN. The mysterious manner surrounding STEUERMAN's disappearance was sufficient cause for the envelope to be opened.

In the presence of all the people at the meeting, MICHAEL GRUNDFAST opened the envelope. There was a note that instructed MR. GRUNDFAST not to pay one MYRON FOX, the attorney for SEYMOUR and ARLENE TANKLEFF; the note went on to state that MR. FOX had been paid cash through September of 1988. Another item in the envelope was a letter of agreement between SEYMOUR TANKLEFF and JERRY STEUERMAN regarding a buy-out of business interests. A third item in the envelope was an amortization schedule for a bagel shop in Jericho, New York. A fourth item in the envelope was a letter to JERRY STEUERMAN's son, GLENN. The letter listed money that was owed by JERRY STEUERMAN, and it named creditors such as SHARON (JERRY's girlfriend); MR. GRUNDFAST; and Atlantic City. There was additional instructions in the letter for GLENN STEUERMAN to contact SHARON regarding insurance policies. There was instruction regarding the business interests with his sons, as well

On 9/16/88, the undersigned and DET. JAMES HUGHES #776, of this Command, interviewed NICK ARGYROS at the BAGEL CHALET, Veterans Highway (STERN'S SHOPPING CENTER), Commack; telephone number 499-9820; home phone number 979-7914.

MR. ARGYROS states that JERRY STEUERMAN and DANNY FLEICHMAN taught him the bagel business about eight years ago. With their financial help, he opened the COMMAUX BAGEL STORE. He is still paying back a loan to them.

JERRY STEUERMAN came to the BAGEL CHALET on Tuesday, 9/13/88. He picked up a couple hundred dollars from the safe, as he usually does. NICK ARGYROS and JERRY STEUERMAN talked about business and the Jewish Holidays. ARGYROS knew about the relationship JERRY STEUERMAN had with SHARON FREIFELD, but did not know about any other female friends.

Also interviewed this day was DANNY FLEICHMAN at his bagel shop on Merrick Road (Route 27A) in Massapequa (just west of the high school), phone number 541-4341, home phone number 367-7802. He had received a phone call from JERRY STEUERMAN a week ago Thursday (9/8/88) about the TANKLEFF Murder/Assault. JERRY was very upset and FLEICHMAN has not seen or heard from him since.

According to DANNY FLEICHMAN, JERRY STEUERMAN was more upset about his wife's death than most people realized. They were very close, best friends, and did everything together. He was aware of STEUERMAN's relationship with SHARON FREIFELD, but did not know of any other females in JERRY's life. DANNY FLEICHMAN further stated that JERRY's wife was the one who got them involved in owning horses. STEUERMAN went to Atlantic City often; he was not a high roller, but he was a card player. He did not bet on the horses. According to DANNY FLEICHMAN, JERRY STEUERMAN was not involved with a bookmaker or any loan sharks. JERRY STEUERMAN had very good credit. There were many people that he could go to if he needed money, including DANNY FLEICHMAN and the bagel equipment manufacturing people.

DETAILS

She was aware that her friend, and companion, JERRY STEUERMAN (12/14/39) was a missing person. She stated that she last spoke to STEUERMAN on Wednesday, 9/14/88, at 0730, and again at 0815. In the earlier call, JERRY called her. He was at the bagel store. He said that he was going to the bank, creating a will, had made an appointment with MR. GRUNDFAST for Thursday, and that he was going to GLENN (one of his sons) to get him to sign a form for GLENN to have Power of Attorney. In the second call, FREIFELD called JERRY STEUERMAN in regard to the repair of one of her children's cars.

MS. FREIFELD said that JERRY wanted a will because SEYMOUR TANKLEFF's death was a sudden reminder of how important it was to tie everything together.

The past weekend STEUERMAN was very quiet. He had a lot on his mind, and he was very tired.

On Wednesday, September 28, 1988, the undersigned, D/SGT. ROBERT P. DOYLE #463/3310, and MR. EDWARD C. JABLONSKI, Chief of the Homicide Bureau, responded to 3662 Katella Avenue, Los Alamitos, the home of one TRUDY POLSKY, dob 11/8/36. It had been ascertained that JERRY STEUERMAN made several phone calls to her from San Francisco. After a brief investigation, TRUDY POLSKY was located at the Municipal Court Building in Long Beach, California.

It was ascertained from MS. POLSKY that she had, in fact, been in contact with STEUERMAN who was still using the name JAY WINSTON. MS. POLSKY believed STEUERMAN was staying at the Holiday Inn at 500 East 1st Street, Long Beach, California. It should be noted that MS. POLSKY stated that if STEUERMAN was suspected of committing any crime she would represent him. MS. POLSKY was advised that STEUERMAN was not a suspect in any crime and that she could speak with him at any time.

At about 2 p.m., we met with STEUERMAN in his hotel room at the Holiday Inn. It was apparent that STEUERMAN was emotionally upset over the deaths of ARLENE and SEYMOUR TANKLEFF. In addition, he was upset over the fact that TANKLEFF's family and friends would think that he could be involved in something of this nature. Furthermore, STEUERMAN was extremely upset with himself as a person in general. He talked about family problems and where he felt he was going with his own life. He thought the life insurance he had would help make up for the mistakes he had made during his life.

After talking with STEUERMAN, we explained to him that he did not have to return to New York with us if he did not wish to. In view of what STEUERMAN had told us, the undersigned explained to him that he might be better off returning with us, taking care of his personal problems, and then returning to California at a later date if he wished to do so. STEUERMAN then decided to return to New York with us.

On Friday, September 30, 1988, this writer, D/SGT. ROBERT P. DOYLE, #463, MR EDWARD C. JABLONSKI, and JERRY STEUERMAN, returned to New York.

Case status Closed, Non-Criminal.
